

What is Funeral Cover?

Very simply put it is risk cover, which is paid out within 48 hours of the death of the insured person, to cover the costs associated with arranging a funeral.

Our affordable funeral plans will ensure that your loved ones have a dignified funeral. You don't want to worry about expenses during this difficult time.

South Africa is a diverse nation with different cultures and traditions that determine the cost of a funeral. Generally, funeral arrangements can cost between R7 500 and R50 000.

Most of the time, South Africans are not aware of all the costs that come with arranging a funeral for a loved one so they do not plan ahead for the unfortunate event of death.

Funeral cover gives you the peace of mind and allows you to grieve without having to worry about funeral expenses.
